

Solihull Archaeological Group

Lecture Programme 2018/19

Meetings take place in the John Palmer Hall, Union Road, Solihull (across the Warwick Road from House of Fraser) starting at 7.45pm (except October when there is a short AGM first at 7.15pm followed by the talk at 7.45pm) and end around 9.15pm with refreshments.

- September 18th: “Excavations at Baginton”
Nigel Page
- October 16th: AGM followed by “Mind the Gap: 2000 years of Activity at Warmington”
David Freke
- November 20th: “Lost Landscapes of Warwickshire”
Rob Hedge
- December 18th: Members Evening
- January 15th: “See it for Free!: Local Sites around Birmingham”
Sue Whitehouse
- February 19th: “Aerial Photography and Archaeology”
Ben Wallace
- March 19th: “ St. Editha, Aethelflaed and the origins of St Editha’s Church, Tamworth”
Bob Meeson
- April 16th: SAG 50th Birthday Dinner at Packwood House
- May 21st: “In the Footsteps of the White Monks: Six Cistercian Abbeys”
Jan Cooper
- June 18th: Local History Lecture with Solihull Local History Circle